

Programme 14 – Disability, dating and inclusive sex ed

Research and co-ordination: Lisa Pirihi and Carolyn Jury

Presenters: Louise Ratcliffe

Produced by Louise Ratcliffe and FreeFM89.0

Guests

Sue Pairaudeau

Director, MyKind

MyKind director Sue Pairaudeau spent 23 years in the media as a newspaper journalist, sub-editor, and editor, and trained as a volunteer LifeLine counsellor.

That was followed by head of communications for a nationwide natural health retailer, before choosing to work specifically for a non-profit, rather than in retail. She landed at Parent to Parent as Business Development & Communications Manager.

Sue and her husband have adult family members with various disabilities, and are family oriented – married for 7 years they have a blended family of six children ranging in age from 17 to 37, and four grandchildren. They recently started MyKind – a social and dating space for people with/without disabilities.

Programme Synopsis

- The difficulties around dating while disabled and the new MyKind website
- An excerpt from the book S.E.X. from the Scarleteen website (link below)

Music

“Take Your Mama” Scissor Sisters

Links

<https://mykind.co.nz/>

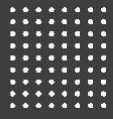

http://www.scarleteen.com/article/read/all_about_s_e_x_the_scarleteen_book

www.parent2parent.org.nz

<https://altogetherautism.org.nz/>

<http://www.enablinggoodlives.co.nz/>

<https://carematters.org.nz/> or 0508 236 236 freephone service for carers

SUPPORTED BY

IHC FOUNDATION